

PRIVACY STATEMENT FOR EU COOKIE LAW NOW IN EFFECT

PrintPost Ltd. has created this privacy statement ("Privacy Policy") in order to demonstrate our firm commitment to your privacy online. The following discloses our information gathering and dissemination practices for the PrintPost web site.

Your IP Address

We use your IP address to help diagnose problems with our server, and to administer our web site. Your IP address is not used by PrintPost to help identify you and to gather broad demographic information about you.

What Cookies are and what they do

A cookie is a small text file that is saved to the hard drive of your computer when you use a website. Our website use both session and persistent cookies. Session cookies are transferred to your computer only for the duration of your visit to a website. Session cookies help you to move round a website faster and allow's the user to give you information relevant to the services you require. These cookies automatically expire when you leave a website or shut down your browser. Persistent cookies are cookies that stay on your computer permanently until you manually delete them.

List of the main cookies used on the PrintPost website

This is a list of the main cookies set by the website, and what each is used for:

Cookie Name(s)	Used by	Purpose
MODX CMS	Printpost Ltd	Strictly necessary to allow for functioning and administration of Printpost website.
__utma, __utmb, __utmc, __utmz	Google Analytics, all areas of the site	These cookies are used to collect information about how visitors use our site. We use the information to compile reports and to help us improve the site. The cookies collect information in an anonymous form, including the number of visitors to the site, where visitors have come from geographically, and the pages they have visited, the devices and browsers the visitor is using.
APISID, CONSENT, HSID, NID, SID, SIDCC	Google Maps	These cookies are used by Google to store user preferences and information when viewing pages with Google maps on them

How can I prevent Cookies being used?

When you first visit our website, unless you change your Cookies Settings, we will continue to set all Cookies on your device. You can find out how to do this for your particular browser by clicking "help" on your browser's menu or by visiting <http://www.allaboutcookies.org/manage-cookies/index.html>. You can also find information in our cookies table above regarding specific cookies.

However, please be aware that should you choose to disable cookies it may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website and some of the website may fail to work.

Information We Request Directly From You

Our Site's enquiry form, requires you to give us contact information (like your name and email address) these are not passed on to any 3rd parties.

How We Use Contact Information

Your contact information is used to contact you when necessary in connection with your query on our Site. From time to time PrintPost may contact you regarding products or services. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we will not disclose your name or address to any outside organisation unless compelled by law. If a third party serves on us a subpoena or other lawful document compelling disclosure of your identity, we will use our best efforts to provide you notice to the latest address in our files provided - we are not responsible if your contact information is not current or if we are otherwise unable to provide notice. Your contact information will be passed on to a successor in interest in the event of bankruptcy, receivership or other transfer of ownership.

Other Sites/Third Party Vendors and their Privacy Policies

This Site does not contain links to other Sites. PrintPost is not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of such web Sites or for the privacy policies and practices of other third parties.